

JEB BUSH
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

Armenian Martyrs' Day

WHEREAS, the Ottoman Turks were responsible for a mass extermination of an estimated one and a half million Armenians that began April 24, 1915 and continued until 1923; and

WHEREAS, many Armenians were victims of genocide in the pursuit of religious freedom, justice and human rights; and

WHEREAS, recognition of this tragedy educates people about genocide and may prevent future occurrences of genocide; and

WHEREAS, in 1975, the United States House of Representatives approved House Joint Resolution 148, resolving to designate April 24th as "National Day of Remembrance of Man's Inhumanity"; and

WHEREAS, this resolution calls for "the people of the United States to observe such day as a day of remembrance for all the victims of genocide, especially those of Armenian ancestry"; and

WHEREAS, Armenians contribute richly to Florida's social mosaic and add to our political, educational and economic development;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jeb Bush, Governor of the state of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing April 24, 2006 as Armenian Martyrs' Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 7th day of April in the year two thousand six.
